

BANCO LATINOAMERICANO DE COMERCIO EXTERIOR, S.A.

CHARTER RISK POLICY AND ASSESSMENT COMMITTEE (CPER)

I. Objectives

The Risk Policy and Assessment Committee (the "Committee") of Banco Latinoamericano de Comercio Exterior, S.A. (the "Bank") is a standing committee of the Board of Directors. The Committee is responsible for reviewing and recommending to the Board of Directors (the "Board"), for its approval, all policies related to prudent comprehensive risk management. The Committee also reviews and assesses exposures to the risks facing the business, within the risk levels the Bank is willing to take according to the related policies, including the review and assessment of the quality and profile of the Bank's credit facilities, the exposure to market and liquidity risks and the analysis of operational risks, which take into account the legal risks associated with the Bank's products, and environmental and social risks, and those related to climate.

The Committee performs its duties based on reports received regularly from Management Committee and through its interactions with the Comprehensive Risk Management area and other members of the Bank's management. In performing its functions, the Committee shall apply criteria of reasonableness and materiality in the scope of its duties.

The Committee is not responsible for enforcing policies or compliance with legal limits or other restrictions that may apply. Such responsibilities fall under the Comprehensive Risk Management function and Management of the Bank as a whole.

II. Organization

The Committee shall consist of no less than three Directors. Subject to this minimum, the exact number of members of the Committee shall be determined, from time to time, by the Bank's Board. One Director should also be a member of the Audit Committee. Moreover, the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Risk Officer, the Chief Commercial Officer and the Chief Financial Officer shall also participate in the Committee.

The members of the Committee and its Chair shall be elected and removed by the Board and shall serve for a period of one year, but they may be reelected indefinitely.

III. Meetings and Resolutions

The Committee shall meet at least five times per year, or more often if the circumstances so require. The Committee meetings shall be called up by its Chair or upon request of two of its members. Those meetings shall take place at such venue, date and time as may be determined in the respective notice. The invitations to the meetings should contain their agenda. The Committee may also meet by conference and/or virtual calls.

A presence of the majority of the Committee members shall be needed to constitute the quorum required to hold meetings of the Committee.

The Committee meetings shall be chaired by its Chair and in the absence thereof, by such ad-hoc chairperson as may be designated at the meeting to act as chair.

In virtue of this Charter, the Bank's Board has delegated sufficient powers to this Committee for adopting resolutions that need to be complied with mandatorily in order to discharge the duties and responsibilities assigned thereto. However, such resolutions as may be adopted by the Committee in virtue of this delegation of powers may, at no time, contradict the Bank's Articles of Incorporation or its By-Laws, this Charter or any resolutions adopted by the Bank's Shareholders or the Board. The delegation of powers granted by the Board herein shall not prevent, under any circumstances, that the Board also adopt any resolutions regarding the issues that fall under the competence of the Committee.

All resolutions of the Committee shall be adopted by a favorable vote of no less than a majority of its members.

The discussions and resolutions of the Committee shall be recorded in minutes that shall be signed by the Chairman and the Secretary of the Committee and kept in registrar of minutes or in electronic form.

- Degree of compliance with existing policies

The Committee shall make recommendations for action plans and corrective measures that could be adopted by Management and indicate such other changes or measures that would be convenient. Those recommendations shall be submitted to the Board for their review and approval, as appropriate.

VI. Management of Conflicts of Interest

Any transaction involving the Bank and a shareholder, Director, Officer, or employee of the Bank, or any person for whom such shareholder, Director, Officer, or employee is a shareholder, director, official, employee, or agent or any person with whom any of them has a family relationship (all of them “Related Persons”), poses a situation of potential conflict of interest. Therefore, all such transactions, including approval of limits or loans, interest-bearing bank deposits, management of the Bank's portfolio or any other business dealing must be carried out in the best interest of the Bank, comply strictly with applicable laws and rules, and never be carried out for the individual benefit of a shareholder, Director, Officer, or employee of the Bank or of their Related Persons.

The Committee shall proceed as follows with respect to transactions that could pose a conflict of interest:

- Any Director facing a conflict of interest situation regarding a specific transaction must disclose it to the Committee
- Any Director facing a conflict of interest situation regarding a specific transaction shall abstain from any communications with Management that could interfere therewith on the issue causing the conflict of interest
- Any Director facing a conflict of interest situation regarding a specific transaction shall withdraw from the meeting room to allow the other Committee members to have a broad and open discussion on the transaction
- The Committee will make the decision with the abstention of the Director having the conflict of interest
- When analyzing country risk limits and capital allocation by country, the Director belonging to the country under analysis may give his or her professional opinion on the matter, but shall withdraw before the voting

VII. Compensation

The Committee members shall receive such compensation as the Board may determine from time to time.

VIII. Amendments

This Charter may be amended by the Bank's Board whenever they consider it convenient or necessary based on its reviews, but at least on an annual basis.
