The Foundation.

food during four months to the neediest families of the children served by Wong and in Brazil we supported the Brascri Foundation to supply bags of community and surrounding areas.

Señora de la Merced shelter, Marie Poussepin Educational Center and the organizations, with which the Foundation has been working over the years, contributed US$100,000 to the Feed a Life (Alimenta una Vida) program run In Panama, where our Headquarters are located, the Foundation distributed among seven non-profit organizations.

carrying out Bladex's social work, allocated the sum of US$160,000 countries from the United States, Latin America, Europe, and Asia.

that by 2025, per capita GDP in Latin American countries will probably be becoming more self-sufficient and closed, with a negative impact on the countries feel they no longer have to depend on international cooperation, gives it greater legitimacy; and one without global leadership where concern, where a transformed globalization survives and the current crisis

Looking ahead, Dr. Hausmann envisions two possible scenarios: one in the global economy. The renowned economist indicated that the Region will not witnessing a strong recovery, because economic activity will remain seriously to the reduction in demand and falling prices of exports, decrease in other hand, additionally affect countries due to their global impact through the confinement measures represent an impact on supply, which is transmitted indirect economic effects, as well as their implications on public policies.

remittances, decline in tourism and air transportation, as well as greater pandemic in the Region: the epidemiological aspects and their direct and government authorities from 13 countries around the world, seven of which Dr. Hausmann, Professor of the Practice of Public Policy (M.P. P) both from the University of invited renowned economist Ricardo Hausmann, as a speaker at the video conference offered to various stakeholders on July 2.

In order to better understand the challenges faced by Latin America and the FUNDACIÓN CRECE LATINOAMÉRICA-GONZALO MENÉNDEZ

The proceeds from this issuance will be used to support the Bank's clients insurance companies, investment companies, private banks and treasuries.

market, acquired great relevance at the local level as it was the first transaction carried out since the end of March 2020. The transaction was acquisition finance facility was successfully closed for Imperia Intercontinental Inc., where the Notes were issued under a dual-tranche structure, of three and five Banesco USA and, previously, as General Manager of Banesco Panama. In Mr. Salas is an international banker with extensive experience in the financial services industry in Latin America and the United States.

five years he served as President and CEO of Mr. Salas holds a master's degree in Business continue building upon Bladex's unique strengths to have been assigned the responsibility to the position in the country as the second SISA), to partially finance the acquisition of Scotiabank's Banking and Cuscatlán S.A. and Seguros e Inversiones de El Salvador, S.A. ("SISA"), to partially finance the acquisition of Scotiabank's Banking and Cuscatlán S.A. and Seguros e Inversiones de El Salvador, S.A.

The proceeds of the Facility were used by Agent for this important transaction. Bladex acted as Joint Lead Arranger and corporate social responsibility

ACQUISITION FINANCE FACILITY FOR IMPERIA INTERCONTINENTAL INC.

FUNDACIÓN Fomento Económico Latinoamericano Recognizes Bladex as the best Trade Finance Bank in the Region. Bladex recently received the

The total demand was oversubscribed by 1.55 times.

Mr. Salas is an international banker with extensive experience in the financial services industry in Latin America and the United States.

...opportunities to fuel the Bank's growth and continue building upon Bladex's unique strengths to have been assigned the responsibility to Copyright © 2020 Banco Latinoamericano de Comercio Exterior, S.A., All rights reserved.

You can update your preferences or change how you receive these emails.