Volunteer Committee Organizes End of Year Parties

As a tradition, the group of volunteers from our Representative Office in Brazil organized a day of cultural and entertainment activities in the company of Bank volunteers, who presented more young people from Hogar Divina Gracia and the El Bale Community Center enjoyed a full day of cultural and entertainment activities in the company of Bank volunteers, who presented more young people from Hogar Divina Gracia and the El Bale Community Center.

At the Marie Poussepin Educational Center over 700 students were treated to a party, gifts, and the awarding of a talent show developed by the primary level students. In addition, some 50 impaired infants.

As a tradition, the group of volunteers from our Representative Office in Brazil organized a day of cultural and entertainment activities in the company of Bank volunteers, who presented more young people from Hogar Divina Gracia and the El Bale Community Center enjoyed a full day of cultural and entertainment activities in the company of Bank volunteers, who presented more young people from Hogar Divina Gracia and the El Bale Community Center.

At the Marie Poussepin Educational Center over 700 students were treated to a party, gifts, and the awarding of a talent show developed by the primary level students. In addition, some 50 impaired infants.

As a tradition, the group of volunteers from our Representative Office in Brazil organized a day of cultural and entertainment activities in the company of Bank volunteers, who presented more young people from Hogar Divina Gracia and the El Bale Community Center enjoyed a full day of cultural and entertainment activities in the company of Bank volunteers, who presented more young people from Hogar Divina Gracia and the El Bale Community Center.

At the Marie Poussepin Educational Center over 700 students were treated to a party, gifts, and the awarding of a talent show developed by the primary level students. In addition, some 50 impaired infants.

As a tradition, the group of volunteers from our Representative Office in Brazil organized a day of cultural and entertainment activities in the company of Bank volunteers, who presented more young people from Hogar Divina Gracia and the El Bale Community Center enjoyed a full day of cultural and entertainment activities in the company of Bank volunteers, who presented more young people from Hogar Divina Gracia and the El Bale Community Center.

At the Marie Poussepin Educational Center over 700 students were treated to a party, gifts, and the awarding of a talent show developed by the primary level students. In addition, some 50 impaired infants.

As a tradition, the group of volunteers from our Representative Office in Brazil organized a day of cultural and entertainment activities in the company of Bank volunteers, who presented more young people from Hogar Divina Gracia and the El Bale Community Center enjoyed a full day of cultural and entertainment activities in the company of Bank volunteers, who presented more young people from Hogar Divina Gracia and the El Bale Community Center.

At the Marie Poussepin Educational Center over 700 students were treated to a party, gifts, and the awarding of a talent show developed by the primary level students. In addition, some 50 impaired infants.

As a tradition, the group of volunteers from our Representative Office in Brazil organized a day of cultural and entertainment activities in the company of Bank volunteers, who presented more young people from Hogar Divina Gracia and the El Bale Community Center enjoyed a full day of cultural and entertainment activities in the company of Bank volunteers, who presented more young people from Hogar Divina Gracia and the El Bale Community Center.

At the Marie Poussepin Educational Center over 700 students were treated to a party, gifts, and the awarding of a talent show developed by the primary level students. In addition, some 50 impaired infants.